

Bears' Tale

The Senior Class Presents
THE BEARS' TALE
1963

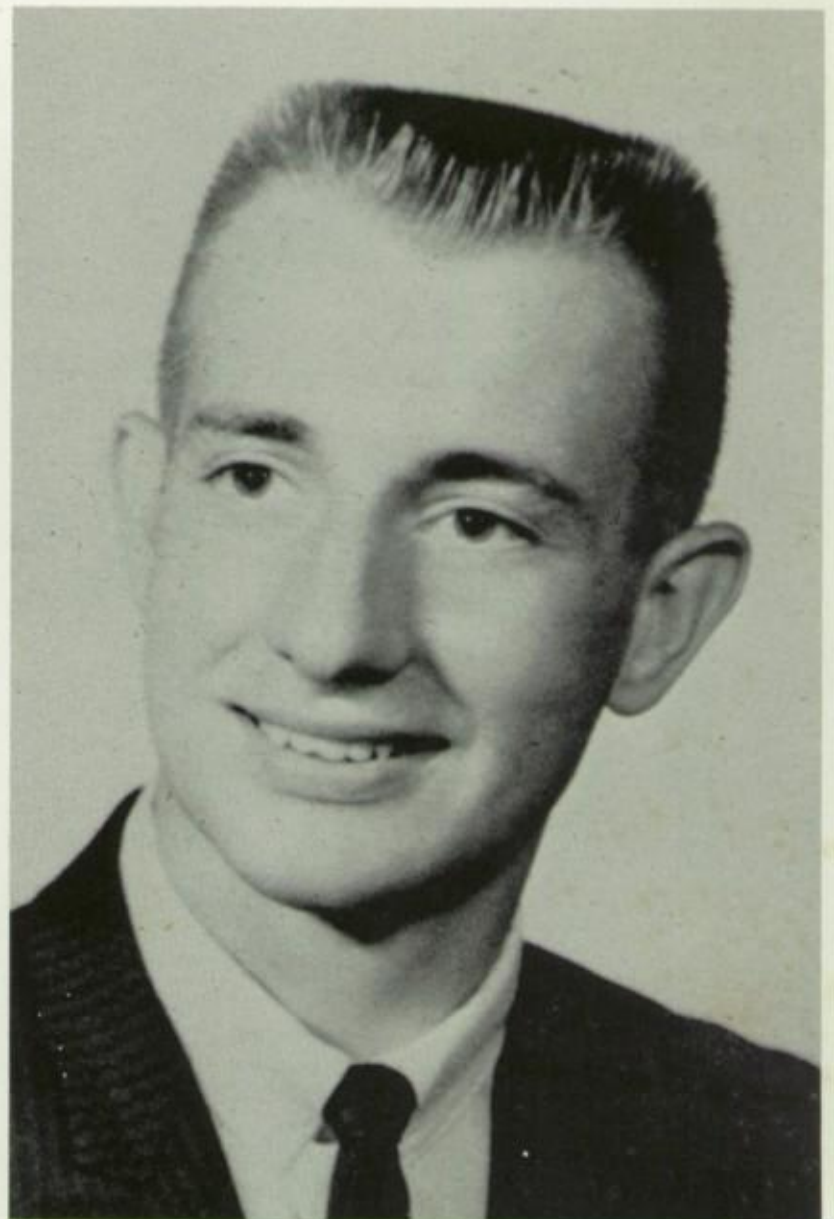

Gibsonburg School System
Gibsonburg, Ohio

Dedication

ROXANNE KAY FORK

RICHARD ALLEN RUTH

We, the Class of 1963, sincerely dedicate this Bears' Tale to Roxanne Fork, Class of 1968, and to Richard Ruth, Class of 1962.

ALMA MATER

Sons of Gibsonburg arise,
Wherever you may be,
And send her praises to the sky,
To show your loyalty.

Alma Mater, guide our ways,
And make us good and true.
When we recall our high school days,
We'll sing this hymn to you.

Dear Old School, though we may part
To play in life's old game,
We'll keep thee locked within our hearts,
And ne'er disgrace thy name.

Seniors

TONIGHT WE LAUNCH; WHERE SHALL WE ANCHOR?

Tonight our anchors shall be cast
Into the sea of time,
We know not what the future holds,
Of tears or joys sublime.

Tonight our ships will sail away
To see what lies ahead
To face life's problems one by one,
Wherever we are led.

Tonight our ships will sail away
To happiness and pleasure,
To objects of a wider world,
To everlasting treasures.

The harbor lights are shining,
In the sky the stars shine bright,
To us they'll be the guiding hand
That leads us through the night.

Though our ships may oft be tossed about
In turmoil or despair,
We'll never once forsake the fight
Pretending we don't care.

May our friendships here be steadfast,
May our ships pass in the night,
As we travel o'er the ocean
In search of what is right.

When our ships are old and battered
And the sea no longer roars,
May our lives have not been lived in vain
As we seek the homeward shore.

May our ships come home victorious,
May our lives successful be,
When the journey's finally ended,
And we come home, at last, from the sea.

Class Wills

I, Clair Aldrich, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get to school on time to anyone who likes those few extra winks.

We, Joan Anderson and Carrol Bair, do hereby will and bequeath our "large locker" to anyone who wants to try to get 2 coats, 2 pair of boots, and a lot of books into and out of a 2 inch by 4 inch locker. It's fun trying.

I, Sharon Bauer, do hereby will and bequeath my job in Mr. Dunham's office to anyone who thinks she likes to type!

I, Bill Bell, do hereby will and bequeath my football shoes to Jim Balsizer; of course, he'll have to find another pair for the other foot.

I, Denny Bell, do hereby will and bequeath my government seat to anybody who likes to write on desks. In cooperation with Mr. Parisian my desk is now smooth and clean. Thanks, Mr. Parisian, for the wonderful opportunity in helping you sand off my desk.

I, Herb Biddle, do hereby will and bequeath my front seat in second period English class to anyone who thinks that they can stay out of trouble with Mr. Bowers.

I, Alicia Cisneros, do hereby will and bequeath my locker beside the register to anyone who likes to get their legs burned for a whole year.

I, Lillian Cisneros, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in government class to my sister Minerva, hoping she'll get more out of it than I did.

I, Ronald Claypool, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in government class to anyone who wants to hear Mr. Parisian's jokes.

I, Thomas Richard Clink, do hereby will and bequeath my first and only "A" test paper in geometry to any upcoming and deserving student who has studied it as diligently as I have.

I, Sally Darr, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in room 6 to anyone who can goof-off as much as I did and get away with it. Right, Mr. Roberts?

I, Don Davies, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to outdraw Mr. Ervin to anybody who wants to get shot.

I, Mark Diels, do hereby will and bequeath the keys to my '55 Crutch to Jon Fry, Matt Salvidar, Howard Billow, and Archie Flores, so that they can go down the wide alley after every home basketball game with Elmore. Remember what to say to the cops, boys?

I, Ronnie Ellis, do hereby will and bequeath my bench in shop to any Junior who thinks he can cause as much trouble as I did.

I, Norman Eversole, do hereby will and bequeath my sixth period seat in English class to any up and coming Senior who wants to be in a very interesting and intellectual class.

I, Roger Freeborn, do hereby will and bequeath my position as Poet Laureate to Tiger Carr, knowing that he will keep 'em laughing.

I, Fred Friar, do hereby will and bequeath my Senior year to my brother Vic, hoping that he will have as much fun as I did.

We, Carl Fisher, and Ray Gnepper, do hereby will and bequeath our ability to pay attention in second period English class to Dick Conklin and Wayne Miller who already have an intellectual personality.

We, Diane Garn and Sally Vallance, do hereby will and bequeath all the heckling we took from Mr. Ervin to our sisters Beth, Kathy, and Nancy, hoping they don't let it get them down. (Good luck in walking down those train aisles, girls.)

I, Larry Goetz, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to be seen and not heard to my brother Gary.

I, Chris Goucher, do hereby will and bequeath 40 pounds of trouble to Mr. Redding, so he will have something to remember me by. I have a feeling he will! Am I right, Mr. Redding?

I, Barbara Haslinger, do hereby will and bequeath all the fun I had in school to my brother Urbie, knowing that he already has a good start.

I, Paul Helle, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in health class with Mr. Baker to anyone who wants it.

I, David Hemminger, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to do the wrong thing, at the wrong time, and in the wrong place to anybody who wants it.

I, Janice Hoffman, do hereby will and bequeath my ability for getting into trouble to my brother Jim, Jon Fry, Denny Claypool, and Howard Billow, hoping they can have as much fun as I did and still be friends with Mr. Redding.

We, Judy Hoy and Ruth Wetjen, do hereby will and bequeath our good times in the senior class to Roselyn Hoy and Ruth Helle, hoping they will enjoy them as much as we did.

I, Sharon Hoy, do hereby will and bequeath my grades in high school to my sister Roselyn, and my brother Jim who can surely use them. Here's hoping they have as much fun as I did.

I, Judy Kaemming, do hereby will and bequeath all the fun I have had in school to Nancy Kaemming and Darlene Magrum, seeing that they have such a good start.

I, Veryl Keppler, do hereby will and bequeath my determination to graduate to Lynn Henry and Dick Depner.

I, Elwood Kline, do hereby will and bequeath the crutches I occasionally used in the tenth grade to Mr. Ervin, hoping he will now have as much fun playing with them as he did when re-enacting the whole Civil War with his unloaded Springfield and Spencer. Another added feature these crutches have is their built in quality of exceptional weightlessness for prospective stacking swivel drill volunteers.

I, Linda Lawrence, do hereby will and bequeath Mr. Sheronick to any unsuspecting Junior and my old tests to my brother because he will need them.

I, David Lowe, do hereby will and bequeath nothing to no one because I have nothing to will.

I, Kim Morelock, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in government and Kitchen 3 to two sophomore girls. Good luck, girls.

I, Bill Murray, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pay attention in classes to any up and coming young genius in the junior class.

I, Mark Newcomer, do hereby will and bequeath my basketball shoes to Magadore Hoy. Don't worry, Moe, I stuffed the toes with cotton.

I, Doris Nieset, do hereby will and bequeath my quiet ways to anyone who talks too much in Mr. Parisian's classes.

I, Joyce Northcutt, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in government class to anyone who enjoys government.

I, Gary Noss, do hereby will and bequeath all my books to all the girls I flirted with in my senior year.

I, James Olmstead, do hereby will and bequeath all my books and study halls to any underclassman who feels he (or she) needs them.

I, Robert Pressler, do hereby will and bequeath my nickname, Huey, to Mr. Redding so that he may retire it from circulation or confer it to another gigantic, intelligent, handsome, and outstanding Golden Bear football star.

I, Pamela Price, do hereby will and bequeath the title of homecoming queen to any future senior girl who wants to wake up the morning after and find that "cloud 9" just made a crash landing. It's fun to have a short ride, anyway.

We, Jim Promenschenkel and Ronnie Kimmet, do hereby will and bequeath our jobs at Kirwen's Red & White to any underclassmen who want to be physically strong and mentally alert. The qualifications are strong reflexes and fast feet.

I, Dan Reino, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to break my nose to anyone who wants to have a ball in the hospital. P.S. Get on the second floor, that's where the student nurses are.

I, Esperanza Reyes, do hereby will and bequeath my typing eraser to anyone who has as much trouble in typing as I did.

I, Venancio Reyes, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay out of trouble to anybody who needs it. Believe me, you'll need it.

I, Connie Sanderson, do hereby will and bequeath my load of books to anyone who has a strong back and a mile to walk.

I, Earl Shanfelt, do hereby will and bequeath my crutches to Mr. Lampl. Be careful hopping down those steps, Mr. Lampl.

I, Walt Shreffler, do hereby will and bequeath my "Green Lancer" to Mr. Bill Bowers. However, I must inform you that it is a very "hot truck". The State Highway Patrol has been looking for it since September.

I, Barbara Shull, do hereby will and bequeath the sink in Kitchen 3 to Gerry Arnold and Ginny Aldrich, hoping they won't get as many baths as I did.

I, Wade Smith, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in typing class to Wayne Miller, hoping he doesn't end up all thumbs as I did.

I, Betty Spitnale, do hereby will and bequeath my typewriter in personal typing class to anyone who thinks he can make it co-operate.

I, Sharon Stanfield, do hereby will and bequeath my position as Club Editor on the Lime Lite Staff to Karen Lohrbach. Have fun hounding those teachers.

I, Dale Steinmetz, do hereby will and bequeath some of my typing papers to anyone who can read code, a few written out could also be included.

I, Karen Stevens, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get the FBLA meetings organized about two minutes before the meeting to Dave Adams, the new President, but knowing Dave, he may need 3 or 4 minutes.

I, Jim Stricker, do hereby will and bequeath my motorbike to Roger Young.

I, Mike Stumpp, do hereby will and bequeath my physique to Mr. Ervin. Make good use of it, Coach. I'm sure you can.

We, Regina Suter and Ninfa Villarreal, do hereby will and bequeath our ability to quarrel in Spanish to Mary Thompson and Julie Villarreal.

I, Dennis Swartzlander, do hereby will and bequeath my bad habit of not doing assignments on time, especially trig assignments, to any junior who can stand the wrath of teachers, especially Mrs. Vickery.

I, Florence Unger, do hereby will and bequeath my job at Ben Franklins to anyone who can put up with Gary Batey every night.

I, Norman Van Ness, do hereby will and bequeath my frequent visits with Mr. Redding to anyone who thinks he can get along with him as well as I did.

I, Joe Watts, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in English Class to anyone who likes to sit in the last row and the last seat all by himself.

I, Naomi Widmer, do hereby will and bequeath my office staff position to my sister Lynne. Here's hoping she doesn't run into as many difficulties as I did. Good luck, Sis.

I, Patricia Wonderly, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in homeroom to my two brothers and one sister because I always have to sit in the back of the room, and I hope they enjoy sitting in the back.

I, Steve Younker, do hereby will and bequeath my excellent study habits to anyone who doesn't have the time to study.

I, Donna Zorn, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to run out of ink during shorthand tests to any up and coming seniors who enjoy reading letters written in invisible ink.

Class Prophecy

Clair Aldrich has just been named the best hunter between here and Fremont, and is now running for the best fisherman in Sandusky County.

It seems that all the celebrities in Hollywood are going to Anderson's Sewing Shop. Joan got her start in Miss Latham's home economics class.

Sharon Bauer is now a secretary for a very large firm. She got her start in Mr. Dunham's office during her senior year.

Carrol Bair is now a teacher at Washington. After being President of the FTA in her senior year, she couldn't stay away from Presidents.

William Bell is happily married to a certain girl who was one year behind him in high school and is residing in Boston. It seems he just couldn't get over that Bostonian accent she had in the senior class play.

Dennis Bell is still unmarried and is running the Marriage Anonymous Club. It isn't that he is against marriage so much, it is just that he hasn't had time to get married. His new club keeps him on his toes.

Herbert Biddle now owns a used car garage in the city of Gibsonburg. He has had so many cars that he finally decided to buy a whole lot.

Alicia Cisneros is often seen on television these days. Her beautiful smile is in demand by all toothpaste manufacturers.

Lillian Cisneros is happily married to Julio and now resides in the city of Hessville.

Ronald Claypool is now announcing the fights every Saturday night. Could this be true?

Tom Clink is now running for the Governor of Ohio. Because of his part in the senior class play, he is now very much interested in politics.

Sally Darr is now working in a museum. It seems she couldn't get away from one on the senior class trip.

Don Davies and his sons have the biggest farm in the county. Don is also running for treasurer of Sandusky County. His position as treasurer of the class for three years inspired him.

Mark Diels is now playing for the Cleveland Indians. His baseball playing for GHS really paid off.

Ronald Ellis runs a charm school. He specializes in helping people get along with people.

Norman Eversole is now the leading guitar player on the Lawrence Welk Show. He got his start in the 1963 Revue.

Roger Freebron still loves football. His football ability can only be matched by the great Sam Huff.

Zorn Hornungs is under new management. Fred Friar is now managing it after working there during his high school years.

Carl Fisher is now drawing cartoons for Walt Disney. Carl has developed a new cartoon character that looks like a pigmy.

Ray Gnepper has invented a new type lawnmower that will mow a lawn in five minutes automatically with no one pushing it. This new invention was inspired by Ray because of the big lawn he mows at his house.

Diane Garn is now working in a dentist's office, and more and more young men are getting toothaches.

Larry Goetz is a vocational agriculture teacher at Gibsonburg. Larry could never get away from farming.

Chris Goucher now operates the tall girls' shop in Gibsonburg. Could this be the same Chris in the class of '63?

Barbara Haslinger is now a private secretary for a large firm. It seems that her boss has an eligible young bachelor for a son.

Paul Helle now owns Helle's Garage. Like father like son.

David Hemminger is now operating a Drivers' Education Class. No wonder everyone is starting to travel by plane.

Janice Hoffman is now on the United States Olympic Debating Team. It seems that she was always good when it came to quick replies.

Judy Hoy is now married to Kenny and is applying her knowledge learned in home economics.

Sharon Hoy is now a court reporter, and on the side is raising her twelve children.

Judy Kaemming is now the Editor of the Toledo Blade and Sharon Stanfield is her assistant. They got their start on the Lime Lite Staff in their senior year.

Veryl Keppler is kept quite busy farming on his 200 acre farm. Farming has always been his interest.

Elwood Kline is engaged in farming and teaching his little children all about the great Civil War.

Linda Lawrence is finally settling down and getting married. She just couldn't decide whom to go with, especially in her senior year.

David Loew is now a carpenter. He got his start in industrial arts class.

Kim Morelock is now playing football for the Cleveland Browns.

Paula Moyer and Barb Shull have just completed a good housekeeping book. They gained all their knowledge in their four years of home economics.

Bill Murray is now the truant officer for Gibsonburg Schools.

Mark Newcomer is now one of the world's best dentists--at least that is what all the beautiful young ladies think.

Dorris Nieset is now entering a talking marathon. Her quietness was all stored up in high school for this event.

Joyce Northcutt is now married to Ronnie and raising little soldiers.

Gary Noss is now a barber. The only trouble is that he won't cut any curls.

Jim Olmstead now owns a furniture store. He got his start in shop class.

Robert Pressler is now a coach at Ohio State. Football always did seem his goal in life.

Pam Price is the main librarian at the Gibsonburg Public Library. On the side, she is raising little Porters.

Jim Promenschenkel is now a detective for the F.B.I. He has finally learned how to use and handle a gun.

Dan Reino is now married to Joan and runs the dry cleaning business with his father and brothers.

Esperanza Reyes is married to that certain someone. Her experience learned in home ec is certainly paying off.

Venancio Reyes is in the service and soon will be promoted. With a little determination, almost anything can be accomplished.

Connie Sanderson is now working in Boston on the police force. She always did like that kind of work.

Earl Shanfelt just won the 100 mile marathon. Quite a change from high school.

Walt Shreffler is now a coach and history teacher at Gibsonburg High School.

Wade Smith is now playing football for the Cleveland Browns and raising little Stingers.

Betty Spitnale is in the medical field. She has been dating Dr. Kildare, but is more interested in her work.

Dale Steinmetz now runs an enormous farm outside of Gibsonburg. Even though he lived in town during high school, he always liked farming.

Karen Stevens is now married and raising Pecks of cheerleaders.

Jim Stricker runs a motorcycle shop in Toledo. He just can't get away from those cycles.

Mike Stumpp is now running his own pool hall. He just got tired of paying each time he played.

Ronald Kimmet now runs Kimmet's Red and White.

Whereas, Regina Suter is now in Hollywood playing the part of a page. She got her start in the senior class play.

Dennis Swartzlander and Steve Younker are working on a special project that will provide for a man to stay on the moon. Van Braun finally gave up on the project.

Switch--Florence Unger now owns the Ben Franklin Store in Gibsonburg. On the side she is raising her family of little Bechtals.

Norm Van Ness now owns the Fremont Speedway. He has gone to the races so many times, they gave him the place.

Sara Jane Vallance is now a model in New York City. All the beautiful clothes she wore in high school gave her the confidence to model.

Ninfa Villarreal is now a Spanish teacher and raising little Spanish speaking children.

Joe Watts is now a head electrician for General Electric. They just couldn't turn him down after his last name was given.

Ruth Wetjen is now married to Ronnie and raising little Humbergs.

Naomi Widmer still hasn't married. She just broke her 40th engagement. Bill Shammo will probably be the one.

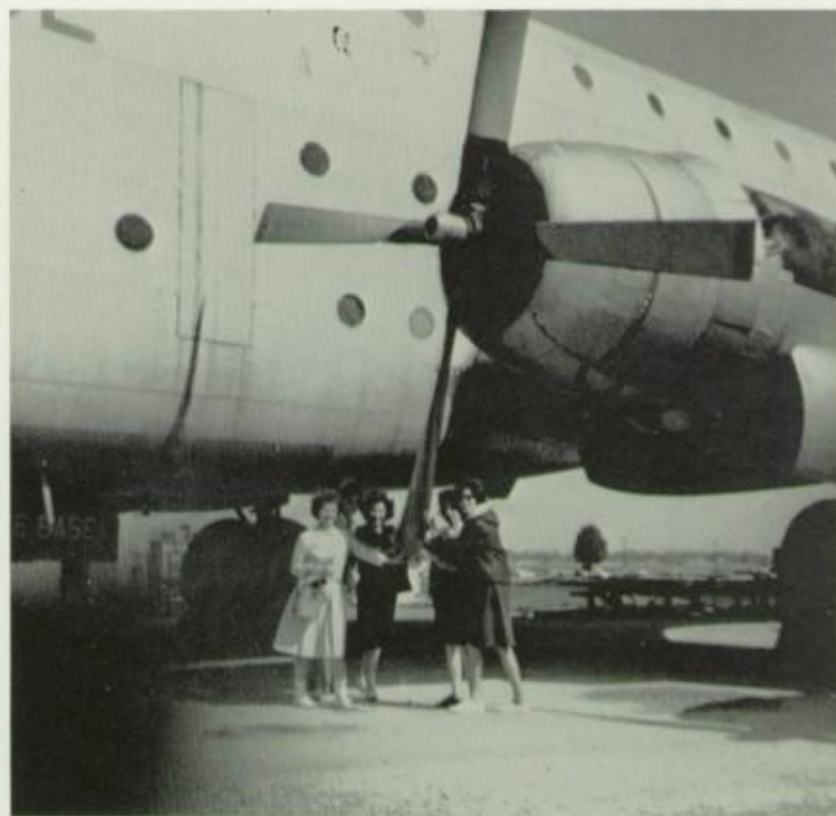

Pat Wonderly is now a nurse at the Tinny City Hospital. Many young men are going there to get their tonsils removed.

You Can't Go Wrong...

Nobody should ever consider his education complete. You can't go wrong by getting as much schooling as possible. So strongly does Toledo Edison feel about this that we finance three scholarships a year at the University of Toledo.

Lots of college graduates find Toledo Edison a good place to work. Investor-owned electric companies offer interesting careers in many fields. You might want to look into this.
